

AT the mart

● The Merchandise Mart's LuxeHome has three new showrooms: Manhattan Forest Products, known for oak, heart pine, cedar, and other hardwoods reclaimed from factories, barns, and other old buildings throughout

New York; Rohl, offering upscale faucets and fixtures for the kitchen and bath; and Exquisite Surfaces, carrying high-end wood flooring and porcelain, stone, and terra cotta tile. Thanks to a long-overdue makeover, the Design Center has expanded to four floors (6, 14, 15, and 16) and has a whole new feel. Shoppers who have a designer (or who are open to working with one through the Mart's Designer-on-Call program) will encounter some new faces—including DesignLush, KnollTextiles, Paul Ferrante (furniture and accessories), Quadrille (fabrics and wallcoverings), and Tufenkian Artisan Carpets—among their old faves. And don't forget the One of a Kind Show and Sale (December 6 to 9), which features thousands of home decor pieces, large and small, and is open to the public.

Jörger polished chrome faucet, at Rohl

Kino Guerin's Why Knot bench, at the One of a Kind Show and Sale

Don't Miss

Find garlands, wreaths, table toppers, and holiday decorating ideas galore at Mariani Landscape's annual Holiday Boutique Nov. 23 to Dec. 19. marianilandscape.com